

CLOSING EVENT – AGENDA

Trials@Home, a home run?

Recommendations after leading the way on DCTs in Europe

SCOPE	LOCATION	DATE
To share learnings from Trials@Home and look to the future of DCTs	The Railway Museum Utrecht, The Netherlands; or online	09.00 – 17.30 CET 31 October 2025

TIME	TOPIC & SPEAKERS
08:30 – 09:15	Welcome coffee & opening
09:15 – 10:50	BLOCK 1: Trials@Home key final recommendations Presentation by Trials@Home leads Mira Zuidgeest (UMC Utrecht) and Kim Hawkins (Sanofi), followed by a panel session with task representatives and interactive Q&A
10:50 – 11:20	Coffee break & posters
11:20 – 12:20	BLOCK 2: Trials@Home deep dive Short presentations by Trials@Home task leads highlighting in-depth research results from the full scope of Trials@Home, followed by Q&A with the audience
12:20 – 13:50	Posters, lunch & networking
13:50 – 14:55	BLOCK 3: Impact in the DCT field Stakeholder panel on experiences in the DCT field, followed by interactive Q&A. Moderators: Helga Gardarsdottir (Uni. Utrecht) and Megan Heath (Sanofi). Panelists: Monique Al (CCMO, CTCG), Maria Dutarte (EUPATI), Martine Dehlinger-Kremer (ICON, EUCROF), Martin Johnson (FutureMeds)
14:55 – 15:25	Coffee break & posters
15:25 – 16:55	BLOCK 4: The future of DCTs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Keynote lecture by Peter Arlett (EMA) on “The future of clinical trials and the role of DCTs in Europe”, followed by an interactive debate (Oxford style) with Peter Arlett (EMA), Kit Roes (EMA), Kai Langel (DEEP), Mira Zuidgeest (UMC Utrecht), Kim Hawkins (Sanofi). Moderators: Sten Hanke (FH Joanneum) and Isla Mackenzie (Uni. of Dundee) Presentation “Trials@Home and beyond” by Mira Zuidgeest (UMC Utrecht) and Kim Hawkins (Sanofi) Presentation on IHI vision for clinical research, outcomes, and opportunities for public-private partnerships by Niklas Blomberg (IHI)
16:55 – 18:00	Wrap up & Drinks

Register Now >

<https://trialsathome.com/trials-at-home-a-home-run/>